Our services

Many of our customers like to order right from the menu. We gladly deliver orders over a hundred dollars when we are available. Ordering from the menu works great for office lunches & groups under 30. We label individual orders with the name of the dish and the persons name if that information is given to us. We include chips & salsa family style with individual orders to go. A 15% service, handling, & packaging fee will be added to the subtotal on deliveries. Individual orders & family style from our catering menu are always available for pick up with a 10% packaging fee added to the subtotal.
